

Gigaset 2000 T

Mobile Unit for operation at
DECT-base stations

Connection: behind Gigaset Bases
91x, 10xx and 20xx

Standards: DECT
GAP
(Generic Access Profile)

Telephone features:

- Desk Telephone with Plug in Power Supply
- 33 x 97 Pixel-Display (Graphic)
- 17 Keys + 4 Soft Keys
 - + 1 Key "Macro"¹
 - + 1 Key "Telephone Book"
 - + 1 Key "Emergency Call"
- Operation Controlled via Menu
- Dialling support
 - En block dialling with correction
 - Redial function (5 numbers)
 - Dialling from telephone book
 - On hook dialling
- Direct Call (Emergency-, Baby call)
- Electronic Lock
- Acoustic - Features
 - Hands-Free, Monitoring
 - Adjustable Speaker / Handset Level Display
- Calling No. (if transmitted)²
- Call Charges

ISDN / ANIS (Features depend on base³):

- CLIP Identification of Calling Party (destination)
- CLIR Suppression of Calling Party Number at Destination
- COLP Identification of Calling Party (origin)
- COLR Suppression of Calling Party Number at Origin
- DDI Direct Dialling In
- AOC-D Call Charges Displayed During and
- AOC-E at the End of Call
- CF Call Forwarding
- CFU unconditional
- CFB when busy
- CFNR now replay
- CD Call Deflection
- ECT Explicit Call Transfer
- CCBS Automatic Recall when Busy
- CW Call Waiting Signal
- HOLD Hold Function

¹ Macro function = to create complex function done by user, e.g. CFU with target number...

² Only if features supported by main station.

³ Only if features supported by main station.